

1. What factors seem to impact TB / fatality rates
2. Is TB one of the diseases that causes relatively higher mortality rates in a country, and if so, what features do countries with that pattern share? Are there other diseases it seems to show up with?
3. Are there patterns in funding in certain years? Are there sudden dips or increases, or does it follow a cycle?